

No. of Mantras.	Page
2.—The object of the six mantras to be used on the first and the second days of the ceremony,	604
3-7.—Ditto ditto on the third to the seventh day of the ceremony,	605
8.—Praise of the final offering,	607

SECTION XII.

Ceremonies to be performed every day during the year that the horse roams about of his own accord.

1.—Eight offerings to Savitá on the morning of the first day of roaming,	608
2.—Eleven ditto to ditto at midday,	ib.
3.—Twelve ditto to ditto in the afternoon,	ib.
4.—An offering with clarified butter to be made at dusk, ...	609
5.—In the eleventh month, a stable or hut is to be made of asvatha wood, and barley to be offered to the horse therein,	609

SECTION XIII.

Addresses to the fire named Ukhá on the completion of the year.

1-8.—Explanation of the twelve mantras for addressing the fire named Ukhá ,	610
---	-----

SECTION XIV.

Homa with boiled rice, &c., in connexion with the Asvamedha sacrifice.

1.—Anecdote on the origin of the rice homa ,	612
2.—The first article of the homa , viz., clarified butter, ...	613
3.—The nine other articles of the homa , viz., honey, rice, flattened rice (commonly called chire), baked rice (khai) powdered barley mixed with clarified butter, baked barley, fried barley meal, the grain called Masusi ,	