

No. of Mantras.		Page
13.—Oblations meet after the above,	... ..	638
14.—The advantage of knowing the above,	... ..	ib.
15.—Two subsequent oblations,	... ..	ib.

SECTION XXI.

Peculiarities in regard to the establishing of the fire in connexion with the horse sacrifice.

1.—Twenty-one fires necessary according to some authorities,		639
2.—Their impropriety according to others,	... ..	ib.
3.—The question decided in favor of twelve fires,	... ..	ib.
4.—Praise of the twelve fires,	... ..	640
5.—Ditto, of the eleven posts,	... ..	ib.
6.—An objection raised,	... ..	ib.
7.—The same disposed of,	... ..	641
8.—Twenty-one posts preferred,	... ..	ib.
9.—Praise of the (three-fold) twenty-one elements of the sacrifice, (21 posts, 21 fires, 21 stomas,)	... ..	ib.

SECTION XXII.

Certain details regarding the recitation of the Vahispavamána hymns.

1.—An anecdote why the Vahispavamána hymn should be addressed to the horse,	... ..	642
2.—The horse to be appointed in the place of the Udgátṛi,	... ..	643
3.—On the holding of the tail of the horse,	... ..	ib.
4.—The horse to be made to neigh by placing a mare before him,	... ..	ib.
5.—The place of the mare,—her neighing,	... ..	644
6.—The above further explained,	... ..	ib.
7.—The Vahispavamána hymns to be prefaced by the offering of gold,	... ..	ib.