

No. of Mantras.	Page
8.—The morning reserved for the Sun,	370
9.—Praise of the above,	ib.
10.—The second offering of the morning to be given without a mantra,	ib.
11.—Offering to Agni and S'urya together (Sañs'rishta homa,) ...	371
12.—The object of the Vesper oblation explained in the mantra for the Vesper oblation,	372
13-17.—The objects of the different parts of the mantras ex- plained,	373

SECTION III.

Purification and Manipulation of the clarified butter, &c.

1.—The spot where, and the burning charcoal upon which, the jar of the clarified butter is to be placed,	375
2.—Necessity of the burning charcoal,	376
3.—Water to be dashed on it should the frumenty, when being cooked, boil over,	ib.
4.—The desirer of divine glory (brahma-varchasa-kāma) should not dash the water,	ib.
5.—A difference of opinion about it,	ib.
6.—The necessity of looking at the butter with a burning straw in hand,	377
7.—Turning a burning straw round the butter jar,	ib.
8.—The same to be repeated three times,	ib.
9.—How the jar is to be removed from the fire, and the side where it should be kept,	ib.
10-19.—Details of different manipulations and purifications, ...	377-382

SECTION IV.

Subsidiary details regarding the performance of the ceremony.

1.—The quantity of oblation should gradually increase accord- ing to the number of offerings,	382
2.—The reverse unpropitious,	ib.
3.—Oblatory articles to be re-arranged after every oblation, ...	383
4.—Hotá to look at the Gárhapatya fire after every obla- tion,	ib.
5.—Place where the second oblation should be poured,	ib.
6.—Oblation spoon (s'ruva) how to be cleaned,	384
7.—Remains of the oblation to be eaten and the effect thereof, ...	ib.
8.—Praise of the oblation, of the clearing, and of the tasting of the oblation,	385
9.—Praise of Agnihotra as to how it is gratifying to all,	384
10.—How to wash the mouth after tasting the oblation,	ib.
11.—Heating the spoon before offering the oblation,	385