

No. of Mantras.

Page

SECTION XVII.

Coronation ceremony (Concluded.)

- 1, 2.—Mantras for offering oblations on the fire after the ceremonials of the preceding Section, ... 812
- 3.—A mantra to be repeated when, after the above, a couch of Udumbara wood is placed in the room and the king sits thereon, ... 814
- 4.—Ditto when the priest is shaving the king, ... ib.
- 5.—Ditto when the hair is falling off the head, ... ib.
- 6.—Ditto when the hair is collected and placed on a bundle of dúrvá grass, ... 815
- 7.—Ditto when the king is anointed with a mixture of milk and ghee, ... ib.
- 8.—Ditto when that unguent is applied to the head, ... 816

SECTION XVIII.

Ephemeral or Vighana ceremony.

- 1.—Origin of the ceremony. The maruts having refused to pay tribute to Indra, the latter performed a ceremony in a single day to overcome their determination, hence is it called Ephemeral or Vighana ceremony, ... 817
- 2.—Advantage of performing the same, ... ib.
- 3.—The party who should perform this ceremony. The king, when his subjects refuse to pay tribute and when Brahmans become vicious, should perform the ceremony, ... ib.
- 4.—To begin the ceremony, the two stomas entitled dwádas'a, and then the two others called chaturvins'a, should be repeated, ... 818
- 5 6.—The advantage of knowing this ceremonial, ... ib.
- 7.—The aforesaid two couplets to be recited in connexion with other stomas of odd numbers, such as 13, 15, 17, ... 819
- 8.—The advantage thereof, ... ib.
- 9.—Their connexion with a particular Rîg hymn, ... ib.
- 10.—In reciting them, they should be mixed with hymns of different meters, ... 820
- 11, 12.—The advantages thereof, ... 821

EIGHTH CHAPTER.

SACRIFICES WITH ESPECIAL PRAYERS (KÁMYA).

SECTION I.

Sacrifices of goats &c.

- 1.—Sacrifice of a white goat to Váyu for the attainment of wealth. Invocatory and oblationary mantras for the offering of omentum, rice-cake and butter respectively, ... 823