

No. of Mantras.	Page
8.—Ditto ditto, 8th ditto ditto,	334
9.—Ditto ditto, 9th ditto ditto,	335
10.—Ditto ditto, 10th ditto ditto,	335
11.—Ditto ditto, 11th ditto ditto,	336
12.—Ditto ditto, 12th ditto ditto,	336
13.—Ditto ditto, 13th ditto ditto,	336
14.—Ditto ditto, 14th ditto ditto,	337
15.—On offering oblations to the regent of Āmāvāsya and the mantras for ditto,	337

SECTION VI.

Sacrifices (ishṭi) to Chandramā &c.

1.—Anecdote in praise of sacrifice to the moon (Chándra- masa ishṭi) for translation to its region, and becoming its rival, and the mantra for offering oblations to it, ..	338
2.—Ditto ditto to the regents of day and night (Ahorātra) to prevent the decay of life by time, and the mantra for offering oblations to them,	339
3.—Ditto ditto to U'shá (dawn) to be dear to equals and prosperous, and the mantra for offering oblations to it, ..	339
4.—Ditto ditto to the regents of the constellations (Nakshatra devatá) to be dear to equals, and the mantras for ditto,	340
5.—Ditto ditto to the sun for greatness among equals, ditto,	241
6.—Ditto sacrifice to the Aditis , to be renowned in this earth,	341
7.—Ditto to Vishnu ,	342

CHAPTER SECOND.

DARS'A YA'GA OR SACRIFICES MEET ON THE WANE OF THE MOON.

SECTION I.

Separation of the calf from the cow.

1.—Anecdote in praise of a branch of the Palás'a tree, ..	25
2.—Separation of the calf by the branch,	ib.