

No. of Mantras.	Page
6.—The comparison involved in the above, explained, ...	680
7.—Object of the second and the third quarters of the second mantra, &c., &c.,	ib.
8.—Ditto of the first quarter of the third ditto ditto, ...	ib.
9.—Ditto of the second quarter of ditto,	681
10.—Ditto of the third quarter of ditto,	ib.
11.—Ditto of the first quarter of the 4th ditto,	682
12.—Ditto of the second quarter of ditto,... ..	ib.
13.—Ditto of the second half of ditto,	ib.
14.—Mantra to rectify the evil effects of imperfectly pro- nouncing the above mantras,	683
15.—Water to be sprinkled on the wife after the above ceremo- ny,	ib.

SECTION VIII.

On the merits of sacrificing animals at the As'vamedha ceremony.

1.—Anecdote of Prajápati:—he having created the animal world entered it, but could not come out thereof in his own form. He, therefore, offered profusion of wealth to those who would help him out of the difficulty. The Devas performed the horse sacrifice and helped him out,	684
2.—Praise of the sacrifice of human beings,	ib.
3.—Praise of the horse sacrifice,	685
4.—Praise of the sacrifice of cattle,	ib.
5.—Praise of the sacrifice of goat and sheep,	ib.
6.—Praise of dedicating animals,	686
7.—The above sacrifices praised together,	ib.
8.—Praise of the horse sacrifice, and the merit of knowing it,	ib.

SECTION IX.

Animals meet for the third day of the ceremony.

1.—Advantages derivable from the first and second days' obser- vances,	687
2.— Sákvára Sáma hymns to be recited on the second day, ...	ib.