

No. of Mantras.	Page
16, 17.—Two mantras to be recited by the Addharyya and the Prati-prasthátri respectively, ...	665
18.—The remainder of the spirit after sacrifice to be thrown on an Ant-hill, ...	666
19.—The Brahmá and the Yajamána to drink the remnant of the oblations, ...	ib.

SECTION IV.

Upahoma or subsidiary sacrifices in connexion with the above.

1 to 16.—Mantras to be repeated when offering oblations of animal soup in vessels of horns and hoofs to ensure the perfection of the future body of the institutor of the sacrifice, ...	668
--	-----

SECTION V.

The Abhisheka or bathing-ceremony of the institutor of the sacrifice.

1.—Address to the bathing-chair of Udumbara wood, ...	677
2.—Ditto to the leather that is to be spread thereon, ...	ib.
3.—Mantra to be repeated when sitting upon the chair, ...	ib.
4.—Ditto to be repeated after sitting thereon, ...	678
5, 7.*—Ditto ditto when the priest seated facing the west, sprinkles water on the Yajamána seated facing the east, ...	678
8.—Ditto ditto while touching the hand of the Yajamána, ...	679
9, 11.—Ditto ditto when calling him, ...	ib.
12.—Ditto ditto while touching his head, mouth, hands, fingers, &c., ...	680
13.—Ditto to be repeated by the Yajamána when descending from the chair, ...	681
14.—Ditto to be repeated inaudibly after descending from the chair, ...	ib.
15, 16.—Ditto to be repeated by him in offering two oblations thereafter, ...	682
17.—Ditto ditto when touching the different parts of his own body, ...	ib.

SECTION VI.

Bathing after the completion of the ceremony:

1, 5.—Mantras to be repeated by the Addharyya in offering the five fold oblations before the conclusional bath, ...	683
6.—Ditto ditto to be repeated preparatory to bathing, ...	685
7, 8.—Ditto ditto while bathing, ...	ib.

* Three according to the Viniyoga Sangraha, but the text and the commentary give only two mantras.