

CHAPTER SEVENTH.

EXPIATIONS FOR DEFECTS IN THE PERFORMANCE OF CEREMONIES.

SECTION I.

Expiations in connexion with the Dars'apáurnamása ceremony.

- 1.—Expiratory homa necessary in connexion with the Dars'a-páurnamása ceremony, when the same has to be performed while travelling, 428
- 2.—Expiation for the accidental burning out of the Anváhita fire, 430
- 3.—Ditto for the falling out of a piece of burning charcoal from the altar of the Ahita fire, .. 431
- 4.—Ditto for ditto from the place where the s'amyá instrument is kept, 432
- 5.—Ditto for the accidental drinking, by the calf, of the milk reserved in a cow for the performance of a ceremony,.. 433
- 6.—Ditto ditto ditto, if the accident should happen at the evening ceremony, 434
- 7.—Ditto ditto, if the accident should happen both at the morning and evening ceremonies, 435
- 8.—Ditto for the accidental incapacity of the wife of the performer of the sacrifice, to join in the ceremony, owing to her being in her season, 436

SECTION II.

Expiations in connexion with the oblatory articles of the Agnihotra or fire sacrifice.

- 1.—Expiation for the boiling over of the milk; the milk in such case is to be thrown on an ant-hill, and fresh milk procured for sacrifice, 439
- 2.—Ditto for the falling of insects into the milk when boiling; the milk to be thrown away with a palás'a leaf in it, and fresh milk obtained for use, .. 440
- 3.—Ditto for rain drops falling into the milk, 441