

No. of Mantras.

Page

SEVENTH CHAPTER.

EPHEMERAL SACRIFICES OR SAVAS.*

SECTION I.

VRIHASPATI SAVA or the sacrifice for attaining the rank of Vrihaspati.

1.—A stoma appropriate in this sacrifice noticed,...	...	750
2.—A condition of Somayāga pointed out,	ib.
3.—Rathantara hymns not required in the Vrihatsoma,	751
4.—The Hotá for this sacrifice described,	ib.
5.—Object of the sacrifice defined,	ib.
6.—Especial fee for the sacrifice,	ib.
7.—Another ditto,	752
8.—Sprinkling of sanctified fluid on the institutor of the rite or abhisheka after the completion of the sacrifice,	ib.
9.—The ingredient of the sprinkling (melted butter),	ib.

SECTION II.

VAIS'YA SAVA or the sacrifice for the attainment of nourishment or prosperity.

1, 7.—Mantras for offering seven oblations of butter,	753
8.—Object of limiting the number of the oblations,	755
9.—Animal most appropriate for the sacrifice (a white four-year old goat),	ib.
10.—Proper time for the sprinkling of sanctified fluid after the sacrifice,	ib.
11.—Seat most appropriate for the priest when sprinkling (a bull hide,)	ib.
12.—Fluid most appropriate for the sprinkling (curdled milk),	756

SECTION III.

BRÁMHANA SAVA or the sacrifice for the attainment of the glory of Brahmá.

1, 8.—Mantras for the offering of eight oblations of butter,	756
9.—Object of limiting the number of the oblations,	758
10.—Manipulation of the fluid for sprinkling,	ib.
11.—Seat most appropriate for the priest when sprinkling (hide of the black antelope),	ib.
12.—Fluid most appropriate for the sprinkling, (melted butter),	759

* A sacrifice lasting generally one day and deifying any one with an especial object, is called a sava. Súyate is'varatvena abhishichyate esviti saváh ekáha vis'esháh.