

No. of Mantras.	Page
5.—Touching of the Juhú, Upabhṛit and Dhruva with the bundle of kus'a grass called prastara ,	75
6-7.—Meaning of the mantra for touching the Juhú with the top of the grass bundle,	ib.
8.—Meaning of the mantra for touching the Upabhṛit with the middle of the grass bundle,	ib.
9.—Do. the Dhruva with the root of the grass bundle, ..	ib.
10.—Meaning of the mantra for throwing into the Ahavaniya fire, the grass bundle and the branch with which the calf is kept away from the cow,	ib.
11.—Do. to be recited by the Adhvaryu when the grass bundle is thrown into the fire,	76
12.—Do. to be recited when touching the middle of the altar, ..	ib.
13 to 17.—Object of certain words in the mantra to be recited when striking the second side of the altar, ..	ib.
18.—Striking of the sides of the altar ordained,	ib.
19.—Oblation of the remnant of butter called Samsráva to be offered with the Juhú,	ib.
20-21.—Explanation of the mantra for the above oblation, ..	77
22.—Do. of the mantra to be repeated when placing the Juhú and the Upabhṛit before the cart,	ib.
23.—Offering of the chaff, called Phalikarana ,	ib.
24.—Anecdote in praise of throwing the grass bundle before the wife of the Yajamána,	ib.
25.—Direct praise of do. identifying the grass broom with the beard of Prajapati,	78
26.—The tie of the bundle to be loosened and the grass to be spread on the space between the Gárhapatya and the Ahavaniya fires,	ib.
27.—The mantra with which the ceremony is to be concluded, ..	ib.

SECTION X.

Mantras relating to the wife of the Yajamána.

1-3.—Explanation of the mantra for untying the knot in the hem of the clothes of the husband and wife, ..	79
---	----