

No. of Mantras.	Page
2.—Difference of opinion as to whether one or two mantras should be repeated to expiate the sin attendant on the sacrifice,	749
3.—The two mantras above alluded to,	750
4 to 6.—Anecdote explaining the philosophy of the Sávit-trágnichayana,—a ceremony which may be all accomplished by meditation,	ib.
7.—Punishment for discussing the subject,	753
8.—The days and nights of the waxing described in the 1st, and the 3rd mantras of the first section identified with the Sávitrágni,	ib.
9.—Ditto do. of the wane described in the 5th and the 7th mantras, do. do.,	754
10.—The object of above-named four mantras,	ib.
11.—The muhurtas of the waxing of the moon named in the 2nd and the 4th mantras, and those of the wane named in the 4th, 6th and 8th mantras to be identified with do.	ib.
12.—The twelve waxings alluded to in the 9th, the twelve wanes of the 10th, and the thirteen months of the 11th mantras to be identified, &c.	ib.
13.—The sands alluded to in the 12th mantra of the first section to be identified, &c.,	755
14.—The ceremonies (kratus) and the seasons of the 14th, and the years of the 15th to be identified, &c.,	ib.
15.—The minor muhurtas of the 13th to be &c.,	ib.
16.—Anecdote describing the rewards due to a knowledge of the Sávitrágni,	ib.
17.—The fruit of knowing the Sávitrágni,	756
18.—Anecdote to explain fully the fruits of the knowledge,	ib.
19.—The fruits which the knowledge secures to him who studies it,	ib.
20.—Anecdote firmly to establish the facts above stated,	757
21.—Moral deduceable from the anecdote,	758
22.—A Rig verse quoted in support of the above,	ib.