

ELEVENTH BOOK.

NÁCHIKETA-CHAYANA, OR COLLECTION OF NÁCHIKETA FIRE.

SECTION I.

The mantras for placing of bricks, and the mode of placing them.

- 1.—Twenty-one golden bricks to be placed in a square space with sand ; mantra for placing the first brick, ... 772
- 2 to 21.—Mantras for placing the 2nd to the 21st brick, ... 773

SECTIONS II to V.

Offering of oblations (homa) for the purpose.

- 1.—S'atarudríya mantra for do., ... 779
- 2.—Vasordhárá mantra for ditto, (pouring of ghi on the wall, so that it may drop to the floor marking lines on the wall), ... 782
- 3.—Mantra for homa with rice, ... 783
- 4.—Mantra for the homa called Visvapri, ... 785

SECTION VI.

Mantras for touching the fire.

- 1.—Mantra for touching the fire, ... 787
- 2 & 3.—Rig verses on the subject, ... 788
- 4 to 8.—Five Rig verses for touching the fire, .. 789
- 9.—Mantra for smearing the altar with some dung brought from the cattle-shed, ... 791

SECTION VII.

Philosophy of the Nachiketa fire.

- 1.—The Náchiketa fire identified with the wind, ... 792
- 2.—The advantages of collecting the fire, and intelligently thinking on it, equal, ... ib.
- 3.—The advantage of thinking on the fire, as having gold for its receptacle, ... 793
- 4.—The advantage of meditating on the fire as having a golden body, .. 793
- 5.—Another advantage of do., .. ib.