

No. of Mantras.		Page
23.—The substance of the verse explained,	... , ...	759
24.—The real object of the knowledge pointed out,	...	760
25.—The reward of knowing it,...	ib.

SECTION X.

Advantages of knowing the different mantras of the Sávitrágni.

1.—The advantage of knowing the Sávitrágni as honey,	761
2.—The disadvantage of not knowing it,	762
3.—The advantage of knowing the subject of the four mantras about the names of days and nights,	ib.
4.—Do. of the 2nd, 4th, 6th, and 8th do.,	763
5.—Do. of the 9th, 10th, and 11th do.,...	ib.
6.—Do. of the 12th, 14th and 15th do.,	ib.
7.—Do. of the 13th do.,	764
8.—Praise of knowing the whole,	ib.

SECTION XI.

The advantages of knowing and the disadvantages of not knowing the purport of the Sávitrágni.

1.—The two kinds of men, those who know and those who do not, defined,	764
2.—The two classes further described,	ib.
3.—Of the two, the intelligent attains the highest reward,	...	766
4.—The unintelligent does not get the full reward,	...	ib.
5.—The intelligent receives the full reward,	767
6.—An anecdote on the subject,	768
7.—The reward which, according to the anecdote Bharadvāja, obtained will be due to others,	769
8.—Higher rewards not available by any other ceremony,	...	ib.
9.—All the gods are worshipped through this ceremony,	770
10.—Praise with reference to the origin of the word Sávitra,	...	ib.
