

No. of Mantras.	Page
(probably Masuri—ervum hirsutum) and the grains of priangu—Panicum italicum ,	613
4.—The offering is to be formed by mixing the aforesaid ten articles,	614

SECTION XV.

Particulars regarding the aforesaid Homa.

1.—Anecdote shewing why the homa should be performed at night,	615
2.—Praise of the first article of the homa ,	ib.
3.—The first offering should be made with the aforesaid first article, viz. , clarified butter,	ib.
4.—The homa to be then performed with the other articles,...	616
5.—The anuvákas that are to be recited in performing the hōma ,	ib.
6.—The object of performing the homa at night,	ib.
7.—A different mode of offering the rice homa ,	ib.
8.—Two mantras of the first of the ten Anuvákas above allud- ed to,	617
9.—Two mantras of the last Anuváka ,	ib.
10.—The last mantra,	ib.

SECTION XVI.

Explanation of the Mantras used in the above homa.

1.—Anecdote in praise of the mantras,	618
2.—Object of the first mantra,	ib.
3.—Object of the numerals in the first Anuváka ,	ib.
4.—Praise of the succeeding numbers in the subsequent mantras,	619
5.—The oblations of the first Anuváka to be offered without enumeration, not so in other cases,	ib.
6.—Object of the first two mantras of the last Anuváka as given in the preceding section,	ib.
7.—Object of the third, fourth and fifth mantras,	ib.
8.—Ditto sixth ditto,	620