

No. of Mantras.	Page
35.—Mantra to be repeated when cutting a peg, a span long, from the lower portion of the palás'a branch with which calves are kept away from their dams, ...	ib.
36.—Ditto to be muttered by the Ritvig and the institutor of the sacrifice, ...	464
37.—Ditto to be repeated when sprinkling water on the sacrificial vessels, ...	ib.
38.—Ditto ditto when the cattle are returning from their pasture, ...	465
39.—Ditto ditto when tying the calves, ...	ib.
40.—Ditto ditto when bringing the calf to the cow, ...	ib.
41.—Ditto ditto before the cow is milked, ...	ib.
42.—Ditto ditto when milking, ...	466
43.—Question of the Adhvaryu to the party who brings the milk, ...	ib.
44.—His reply, ...	ib.
45.—Adhvaryu's address to the cow, ...	467
46.—Mantra to be repeated when touching the milk, after it has received the remains of an Agnihotra sacrifice, for converting it into curds, ...	ib.
47.—Ditto ditto when covering the wooden vessel containing the leavened milk, ...	ib.
48.—Ditto ditto when throwing a chip of palás'a wood into the leavened milk, ...	468
49.—Ditto regarding the placing of the palás'a twigs (M. 28. 32) and the grass bundle on the flour at some known place, ...	ib.
50.—Ditto to be muttered in the evening on the burning coal spread on the altar, ...	ib.

---

SECTION V.

Mantras to be recited by the Yajámána in the Ishṭi rites—Continued.

1.—Mantra to be muttered when lying down to sleep either near the Ahavaniya or the Gárhapatya fire, ...	470
2.—Ditto ditto when the rice cake is to be removed from the fire, ...	471