

No. of Mantras.	Page
3.—The throwing to be done with the aid of a Rig verse in the anushtup metre,	56
4.—The reason of using the anushtup metre explained, ...	ib.
5.—Do. the Rig Veda explained,	57
6.—According to the opinion of some, the brush, &c., are to be thrown on the kitchen midding,	ib.
7.—Throwing into the fire, preferred to throwing into the kitchen midding,	ib.
8.—The latter course confirmed by further authority, ...	ib.
9.—Mantra for throwing the brush &c. into the fire, ...	58
10.—The advantage of throwing the grass into the fire, ...	ib.

SECTION III.

Offering of the clarified Butter.

1.—The wife to sit near the Gárhapatya fire, in order that the hem of her cloth may be tied to that of her husband, ...	58
2.—The tying to be effected while sitting,	ib.
3.—The wife to face the north to prevent domestic broils, ...	ib.
4.—That woman attains all her objects who sits as above. This is her pre-eminence,	59
5.—The wife not having right to perform a sacrifice, attains it by being linked with the husband as above, ...	ib.
6.—The tying consonant with worldly practice,	ib.
7.—The tying praised,	ib.
8.—The object of the husband in tying himself with the wife, ...	ib.
9.—The tying ordained,	ib.
10.—The reason why the husband and wife should sit near the Gárhapatya fire,	59
11-12.—Meaning of the mantra for pouring the clarified butter, ...	ib.

SECTION IV.

Heating of the clarified Butter.

1.—Anecdote on the connexion of clarified butter with sacrifice,	60
2.—The wife to look at the butter,	ib.