

No. of Mantras.	Page
17-21.—Object of certain words in the mantra for offering the Agháras,	69
22.—Object of the mantra for uplifting the sruk , ..	70
23.—The juhú and the upabhrít are not to be allowed to touch each other, when withdrawing them after pouring the oblation,	ib.
24.—Meaning of the mantra to be repeated when withdrawing the juhú after pouring the oblation,	ib.
25.—The Juhú and the dhruvâ are to be brought into contact after the offering of the Agháras,	ib.
26.—It is questioned whether the contact should be made twice,	ib.
27.—It is decided that it should be made thrice, ..	ib.
28.—Object of using the word Jyoti in the mantra for making the contact,	71

SECTION VIII.

Eating of Idâ and the Purodâs'a rice cakes.

1.—Adhvaryu, walking amidst the Brahmâ and other priests on the north of the altar, to take a fragment of the Idâ rice cake, .. .	71
2.—That portion of the Idâ cake which is given to the Hotâ sitting with his face to the west is called avântara idâ , ..	ib.
3.—Anointing with butter the two points of the index fingers of the Hotâ,	72
4.—The avântara Idâ is to be put on the hands of the Hotâ four times,	ib.
5.—The mantra to be recited by Adhvaryu and the Yajamâna. when the Hotâ recites the mantra Upahutam Râthânta- ram , &c., (given in the Hotrikâṇḍa),	ib.
6.—The Adhvaryu and the Yajamâna are to touch the Idâ as held in the hands of the Hotâ,	ib.
7.—They are to repeat another mantra,	ib.
8.—Advantage of knowing the above,	ib.