

No. of Mantras.	Page
23.—Mantra for touching the several oblatory articles as arranged,	496
24.—Sanctification of the rice cake as placed for Indra and Agni,	497
25.—Mantra for rubbing the fire with the rope with which fuel is tied,	ib.
26.—Especial address for the share of the Agnidhra, ...	498
27.—Mantra for rubbing the body after eating the Idá cake,...	ib.
28.—Address to the fire (Agni) after offering the oblatory wood of the Anuyája,	ib.
29.—Mantra for touching the fire a second time before offering the Anuyája oblatory wood,	500
30.—Ditto for sanctifying the grass with which the fire has been touched,	ib.
31.—Ditto to be muttered after the spread kús'a grass is thrown into the fire,	ib.
32.—Ditto to be repeated in the performance of the Sañyuváka,	501
33.—Ditto ditto when throwing away the washings of the rice,	ib.
34.—Ditto ditto when throwing into the fire the pounded rice which sticks on the sides of the mortar,	502
35-40.—Six mantras to be addressed to the sun, ...	ib.
41.—Address to the Ahavaniya fire to be repeated after throwing fuel with the mantra beginning with Samiddha Agni, &c. ,	504
42.—Mantra to be repeated when throwing away the Upavesha stick (a stick 12 fingers long) for a malevolent purpose,	505

SECTION VII.

Mantras for obviating defects in the ceremonial for the initiation of a neophyte (Dhikshá) in connexion with the Soma sacrifices.

1.—Address to the deities connected with the initiatory rites,	506
2.—Ditto to the dress to be put on at the initiatory rites, ...	507
3.—Mantra to be repeated on the final oblation, ...	508