

No. of Mantras.	Page
2.—Ditto from the south, facing the north,	587
3.—Ditto from the west, facing the east,	ib.
4.—Ditto from the north, facing the south,	588
5.—Ditto under the horse,	ib.
6.—Ditto above ditto,	ib.
7.—The object of the first half of the mantra, for subsequent sprinkling,	ib.
8.—Ditto latter half of ditto,	ib.
9.—Sprinkling of the horse praised by questions and answers,	589

SECTION VIII.

Oblations (Homas) with reference to the conduct and colour of the horse.

1.—Oblation (homa) with reference to the conduct (charita) of the horse,	590
2.—The object of the homa mantra explained,	ib.
3.—Discussion on the necessity of the homa ,	590
4.—The place and time of the above oblation,	591
5.—A difference of opinion on the subject,	592
6.—Further ditto ditto,	ib.
7.—Oblation (homa) with reference to the colour (iron grey), of the horse especially noticed,	593
8.—An additional homa ordained,	ib.

SECTION IX.

Repeating the several epithets of the Horse over his ears, &c., and consecrating him.

1.—The objects of the first two epithets,	594
2.—Ditto of the third and fourth ditto,	ib.
3.—Ditto of the fifth ditto,	595
4.—The advantages of repeating the epithets,	ib.
5.—The object of the sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth epithets,	ib.
6.—Ditto of the tenth ditto,	ib.
7.—Ditto of the eleventh ditto,	596