No. of Mantras.	Page
25 Pouring of the washings on three lines in the altar ordained,	48
26.—Heating of the said water with a bundle of burning grass,	ib.
SECTION IX.
Preparation of the Altar.
1.—Taking of the Sphya, or spike for killing animals, while standing by the side of the altar ordained,	48
2-4.—Explanation of the mantra for holding the Sphya,	ib.
5.—Anecdote explanatory of the object of certain epithets
in the first half of the mantra for striking the dúrvá
grass with the Sphya,	ib.
6.—Object of the 2nd half of ditto,	48
7.—Object of the mantra for removing the dust which falls
from the grass,	49
8.—Explanation of the mantra for looking at the altar,	ib.
9.—Object of the mantra for throwing away the dusty
grass,	ib.
10.—Anecdote about the same,	ib.
11.—Anecdote continued with reference to the mantra for taking the dust in his joined hands by the Agnidhra,	ib.
12.—Removing of the dust four times ordained,	50
13.—Anecdote showing why three lines should be drawn on the space beteween the Ahavaniya and the Garhapatya
fires to demarcate an altar,	ib.
14.—Object of the mantra for digging the altar, commencing with the east side,	ib.
15.—The excavation to slope to the east and the north,	ib.
16.—Four prominences are to be kept at the four corners,	51
17.—The loose earth on the altar to be shoved aside by the	-
Culum	ib.
18.—The roots of grass, &c., in the bottom of the altar to be	101
dug out,	ih
ung out,	10.